Pastor's Pen

Happy April Rockford UMC!

April 1st is April Fool's Day where we often twist our stories and trick each other for a good harmless laugh. One time while I was teaching, I taught a lesson in American History Class where I twisted the truth and shared incorrect information. Not one person challenged the truth. I was the teacher, they accepted it as truth and said nothing to me. The next day we talked about bias, propoganda and researching to seek to understand the best truth with all of the information available to us. One simple twisted truth could impact our understanding and life actions.

I am your pastor. I am the "resident theologian" of Rockford UMC. I do my best to present informed information to you from the scriptures. I have been trained and approved to be ordained, I study, prepare and present the Gospel. But none of that makes me any better or smarter than you. My question for you today is do you check and verify what I teach and say? Do you do your own deep study into the scriptures? Are you challenging yourself to read the scripture, understand the traditions, reason and reconcile it in your soul as well as learn from practicing and identifying it in your experiences? Are you a sold out, grace filled, loving person of God who is never content with where you are in your faith journey? Perhaps you are an "April Fool" comfortably living a "Christian life" without depth and growth? God wants us to fall deeper in love with God, love all others and grow to take on the character of Jesus Christ. It is a difficult journey which seems foolish to the world.

Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If any of you wants to be my follower, you must give up your own way, take up your cross, and follow me. If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? Is anything worth more than your soul?" – Matthew 16:24-26

Self-Check time... Are you an "April Fool" joking, twisting the truth looking for a laugh in the moment? I would challenge all of us to become a "Fool for Jesus" give up our own way and take up our crosses and follow him. A sold out Disciple for Jesus Christ!

Peace,
PB Pastor Bill

YOUTH

Grades

from Nathan Rupp

We had Taco Night Saturday, March 16th and it was a good group. We are meeting with the college age group on the March 25th and that has been going well for that group to be able to meet and lead a devotion and share with each other.

We had a successful 30-hour famine with over 10 participants! We had fun with all of our activities and talking about how people live around the world and what they have to go through to survive. We raised over $700 for World Vision which goes to feeding children around the world. We also started confirmation classes and have 5 youth going through them so please keep them in your prayers as well.

On March 29th, the youth will be setting up our Easter Prayer walk from 9am-6pm. It is a come and go as you please. We have started getting Lakeside plans together and to see how many youth will be able to go. It looks like we will have a good sized group going. If anyone would like to sponsor a youth for Lakeside please let Nathan know. We will be leaving June 16th-22nd. Also please remind your youth or grandchildren about our youth group meeting at 4pm on Sundays and small group on Wednesday at 6pm. Please continue to pray for our youth program as they invite their friends and practice living out their faith.

It has been going good but we can always use some more leaders, as some of our high school leaders and helpers will be involved with sports and will not be able to help as much anymore. We did an Easter Egg hunt since they don't have school the Wednesday of Holy Week.

The Faith We Sing

The dictionary defines the word miracle in three ways, as an extraordinary event manifesting divine intervention in human affairs, an extremely outstanding or unusual event, thing, or accomplishment, or a divinely natural phenomenon experienced humanly as the fulfillment of spiritual law.

John W. Peterson had experienced a few miracles. He had been a pilot during WW II and had survived the dangers of military duty. But he knew about a different kind of miracle.

While he was a student at Moody Bible Institute, missionaries often came to the school and told of their experiences and how God had changed their lives. To Peterson this was the greatest miracle of all—the miracle of God transforming a sinner into a new creation in Jesus Christ.

One day after hearing a missionary talk about how God miraculously changed his life after accepting Christ, Peterson could not get it out of his mind. Peterson has written more than a thousand songs and thirty-five cantatas. You might think this as miraculous in itself, but that day listening to the missionary, another song took shape in his mind. As soon as it was possible, Peterson rushed to a music room in the building and completed the melody.

2 Corinthians 5:17 – “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!” 1 Peter 2:9-10 – “But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.”

The hymn Peterson wrote that day was IT TOOK A MIRACLE. We are celebrating Easter season and the experience of Jesus dying on the cross for our sins and then his resurrection was a marvelous miracle, and it was done so that we may have a miraculous life now and in an afterlife with Him.

Peterson died in 2006 and had a major influence on Christian music in the 1950s through the 1970s.

“My Father is omnipotent, and that you can’t deny; a God of might and miracles – ‘tis written in the sky.

V 2 Tho’ here His glory has been shown, we still can’t fully see, the wonders of His might, His throne, ‘twill take eternity.

V 3 The Bible tells us of His pow’r and wisdom all way thru, and ev’ry little bird and flow’r are testimonies too.

CHORUS –

It took a miracle to put the stars in place, it took a miracle to hang the world in space; but when He saved my soul, cleansed and made me whole, it took a miracle of love and grace.”

~Janice

FOOTNOTE: Where did the word “Easter” come from? The origin is unclear. It may have derived from the name of the Anglo-Saxon Spring season dawn goddess Eostre, or, it may have derived from words meaning “rising,” “dawn,” or “east.”

Adage From Ann

Yes, it is spring! At what other time of the year do you find daffodils blooming surrounded by snow? I have heard numerous people worrying over their spring flower bulbs: The weather was warm early; what if we get freezing temps? My hyacinths are in bud. The bulbs will be fine. After all, where do they spend the cold winter? In the frozen ground.

There was one year that I remember: It was unseasonably warm in February, and a single digit cold snap hit. We had railroad ties around our landscape then. The daffodils were about 5" high as I recall. The cold snap hit; what would happen to the flowers. The foliage in, maybe half of the daffodils was severely damaged. The leaves were bent and lying across the railroad ties—and so were the earliest daffodils. Yet, they bloomed! They didn't know that they were handicapped. They turned their faces up to God, shining, as they honored Him.

It is a lesson I remember each spring in Daffodil Season. It seems to be an appropriate topic today for me, at least. I am so tired of moving like a moderate speed turtle. (I have improved from slow turtle speed.) But I still have to get into the far right lane when I push my walker, or I hold up traffic. However, since about the only places I go are to therapy, and to get my hair done, there is not a whole lot of traffic to delay. Those daffodils lying on their beds and blooming, speak to me of those dear ones who are bed-ridden—and yet, still bloom. And we don't need someone else to see us blooming. All we need is our Heavenly Father with us, to see our glow for Him.

We read in Matthew 6:29, 30, 33 "See how the lilies of the field grow. They do not labor or spin. Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these. If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? So do not worry saying 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?'

For the pagans run after these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." And to me, that seems to be the answer to most of what life hands to us: We (I) need to seek a closer walk with God. And how do we do that? Well, that seems to be a whole new topic for another time.

Thank you all so much for your support, prayers, and cards. They are treasured. It is so wonderful to know you are not forgotten, and I will soon be back in church.

Love,
Ann

A purple tag with a hole on the left side, tied with a wooden string. The tag has the words "Thank you!" written in a black, cursive font. To the right of the tag is a single white daisy flower with a yellow center, resting on a piece of brown burlap fabric. The background is a soft-focus image of several more daisy flowers on a similar surface.

Thank You

There are not enough words to fully express our heartfelt gratitude for the sympathy, love and support you have extended to our family during this time of loss.

To Rockford United Methodist Church,
